The No Artist Cheat Sheet

This is not official, it's just my own Cheat Sheet that I have researched and used plenty myself, which has all been field tested and works good for me and my partners. I've only included the best and most valuable advice and techniques that I

This thesis is linguistically ranking the harassment that the players receive on Xbox live. In an innovative and multimodal approach, both lexis and the discourse within text and vocal messages and asynchronous and synchronous environments will be critically analyzed to demonstrate how women are seen as intruders within a system that promotes masculinity hegemonic as a norm. In order to fight what is perceived as a threat of collective identity, male players use extreme verbal and sexual harassment to try to position the female player as "other", thus delegitimizing her presence in the online sphere. To do it, the identities are forced to participate in online games - they are delegated through derogatory names that spread their opinions, body, sexuality in relationships with hypermasculin ideals; They are also inhumanized, objective and silent in a discursive way. Due to the frenetic and aggressive nature of the FPS games (first-person shooter), hypermasculinity is positioned as the norm and punishes those who transgress or do not comply with these hegemonic ideologies. From a theoretical point of view, I use a mixed paradigm that draws a feminist critical discourse and a stylistic analysis of the types and gravities of the insults used, increased by the theories of culpeper's impliance, of the theories of the identity ideological tool for the construction of the 'Identity.
